1. On 4 January 1954, the barracks installation in Rossbau quartered about 3,500 troops who wore red-bordered black epaulets including some with tank, artillery, signal or engineer insignia. For the past few weeks, it has quartered officers' dependents. There was intensive training activity in the billeting area between 15 December and 4 January. Most of the soldiers received close-order drill at group level. The training grounds northeast of the installation and the approach road were enlarged. Soldiers were several times seen at training with 4 AA guns on the Elbe River meadows of the water training site. T-34/85 tanks frequently practiced firing on the water training sites south of Brambach and south of the Flachsfabrik.
